TABLES OF NEW OR REVISED STATISTICAL SERIES

(Only tables in issue No. 12 represent revisions made after the 1942 Supplement was completed; data in other tables listed correspond to data in that volume but provide monthly figures for a longer period of years. Historical data for a number of new series—the new transportation indexes, monthly estimates of consumer expenditures and consumer debt, and dividend payments—now included in the statistical section, are given in tables presented in the special articles on these subjects listed above)
